to-day. The following is the Queen's speech, opening the session:

My Lords and Gentlemen: I have brought you to gether to enable you to further consider the great subject of the representation of the people. I continue to main interestions of amily with all foreign powers. The information from the Soudan includes painful uncertainties, but the energy, courage and resource conspictionsly gisplayed by General Gordon in the successful defence of khartoum deserve my warm recognition. The advance of my troops to Dongola has for its object the rescue and security of that radiant officer and of those who have so faithfully co-operated with him. I am using my best endeavors in Egypt to promote further improvement of affairs in that country. I have given my support to the Egyptian Government in the difficult financial position in which it was left through the failure of the recent conference. I regret the occurrences in the Transvaal, and am considering with the Cape Government means to secure the observance of the convention.

GINTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS: The operations in the Soudan render it necessary to ask of you further pecuniary provision.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN: A bill for the extension of the Parliamentary franchise will be at once introduced. May the blessing of God attend your labors!

A ROCHESTER GRAND JURY INDICES A PROMINENT RAILEOAD MAN FOR BIGAMY. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

ROCHESTER, Oct. 23 .- Among the indictments presented yesterday by the Grand Jury, which has been in session for the past two weeks, is one for bigamy against Colonel E. Pratt Buell, of Canton, or Warsaw, Ill., who has become more or less known in the West as a narrow gauge railroad projector and contractor, having pushing his railroad scheme. On one of his trips East, about two years ago, he became acquainted with Mrs. was a widower, and soon gained her consent to marry him. Mrs. Ross is a woman of irreproachable character is.

James S. Garlock, a prominent lawyer of this city, received a letter from Flora, Ill., some time ago, stating that the writer had noticed in the papers the marriage of Colonel Buell, who had another wife whom he was supporting at Bristol's Hotel, St. Louis. This letter led to a correspondence which brought intermation that Colonel Buell was married to the Western woman twenty-nine years ago in Booneville in this state, and that ason, the Issue of the marriage, now lives with her father in Warsaw, Illhois. It was stated that the Colonel's home was all Warsaw, where he had lived for many years, and that he owned a house and lot there worth about $1,000, and that the stories of his wealth were untrue. Mrs. Buell number one, on hearing of her him band's marriage, at once commenced proceedings against him, and she recently visited. Rochester, appearing before the grand lary with the other witnesses living here. Mrs. Rueil number two did not have the least suspicion until her return home, that her busband had another wife. A letter received here from a Western lawyer says that Colonel Buell was divorced from his first wife in September last. This Mrs. Bueil number one stoutly denies, and says that she never knew her husband contemplated such a step, or was going to be married. She shows letter from him in support of this, written in March has from Flora, Ill., in which he addressed her as "My dear wife." James S. Garlock, a prominent lawyer of this city, re

H. D. COOKE & CO., BANKERS, SUSPEND.

LIABILITIES $140,000-THEY EXPECT TO PAY IN FULL-TEMPORARY EMBARRASSMENT,

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23-The banking firm of the bank that the Suspension results from the firm's unsecured liabilities amounted to about $400,000 last January, and they have steadily been paid off since that time until they are now reduced to $140,000. The firm has at last reached a point, how-ble for immediate use in the market, and can be realized upon only by good management, and waiting for suitable opportunities.

Major John W. Corsen, confidential clerk of the house, states that of the total indebtedness $30,000 is secured. The liabilities are nearly all due to Washington creditors, there being only a bow theorems of distarduction creditors, there being only a bow theorems of distarduction creditors, there being only a bow theorems of the debtedness to all Washington bankers is abundantly seemed.

Mr. Coole preferred not to discuss the matter of the suspension until he should see his partner Mr. Campbell, who is abuent in the West, and whom he had been hussed cressfully endeavoring to reach by telegraph. He, however, assigned as the cause of the suspension, the general shrinkage of values, the prevalent district throughout the country, and the consequent inability of the firm to collect debts due them, and to procure the carrying only of contracts in their favor. "My pariner, Mr. Campbell," said Mr. Cooke, "is uninformed as to the action that I have assumed the responsibility of taking our actual have assumed the procure of the action that I have assumed the procure of the action that I have assumed the caused no cavettement of disturbance in Washington banking every puestionable shot due, us are more than ample to pay off every liability."

The suspension caused no excitement or disturbance in Washington banking or commercial circles, and no ill effects are anticipated. Mr. Campbell is said to be a nam of large wealth, and hable, as a general partner, for all the debts of the firm. It is therefore expected that they will be fully paid at an early date. Aid to the amount of $20,000 was tendered Mr. Cooke by sympathy and high respect for Mr. Cooke as a man and a colleague. The tirm had no interest in the Washington and Ohio Rallroad, athou

FRAUDULENT STATIONERY CONTRACTS. DEMPSEY INDICTED FOR CHEATING THE NAVY DE-PARTMENT OUT OF $75,000.

Boston, Oct. 23.-William H. Dempsey, of Washington, D. C., has been indicted by the United States Grand Jury here on the charge of defrauding the Navy Department. He was a stationer, and supplied most of the stationery used in the different departments at the capital. His plan, as alleged, was to secure orders from the department and receive payment for goods without delivering them. Two clerks in the Department of Medi cine and Surgery were, it is stated, confederates by fill-ing out vouchers for goods that were never received. These practices, it is said, have been going on about fourteen years, and over $75,000 has been lost to the Government thereby. Dempsey is said to be under indictment in Washington upon similar charges.

OTHERS-GREAT ENTHUSIASM AT VARIOUS POINTS-LAFAYETTE REACHED. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 23 .- Mr. Blaine left Evansville at 8:30 this morning, having before him a long day's ride to Lafayette. in which he drew a distinction between the new and the in which he drew a distinction between the new and the old South—the new, seeking the industrial development of that region, and laboring to lead the people away from the projudices of the past; the old, projudiced, bitter and hostile to Northern interests, devoted to the "Lost Cause," narrow of vision and incapable of taking in the aweep and the magnitude of our great future. This old South, constituting, he said, the main element of strength in the Democratic party, was now striving and hoping, with the aid of Indiana and New-York, to get control of the National Government, and it was for the people of those States to say whether they are prepared to hand over the Government to that clement.

Mr. Blaine said that the progressive element in the South included many man who served in the Confederate armies. It naturally affiliates with the Republican party, and it seeks to lead people away from the prejudices of the past, to the contemplation of the malestic future, which wise and magnanimous netion may bring to the South in common with the North, The old South represents the spirit of rebellion and cherishes sentiments of sulten discontent, is full of bitter reproaches against those who triumphed in the war for the Union, regards negro suffrage with abhorrence, maintains the white line, and is ready to use whatever amount of totimidation or violence may become necessary to preserve its own political and personal mastery in the South. It is unquestionally dominant in all the old-slave states, and is in open and avowed affiliation with the Democratic party in the North. It constitutes three-fourths of the effective Democratic strength in the Nation, and in the event of a Democratic trimph would be in absolute and undiputed control of the Government.

Upon returning to the depot he made a short speech,

THE OLD AND THE NEW SOUTH.

The struggle of the Republicans is for the amelioration improvement, and progress of the South as well as of the North, but they are confronted everywhere and resisted everywhere by a determined and hitherto trimaphant Southern Democracy. The aim of the Democratic party, as I have already said, is to conjoin the electoral votes of New-York and Indiana with the electoral votes of the sixteen Southern States, and it is for New-York and Indiana to consider just what this means and where it would carry them. New-York has a greater stake than any other state of the Union in maintaining sound principles of Government, in upholding the National credit, in perpetuating a linancial system which embodies the matured wisdom of the past twenty years, in sustaining a protective policy. Indiana has a stake less than that of New-York only as her population and wealth are less. The citizens of these two States fully comprehend what it means to trust that National credit, the National fluances, the National pensioning, the protective system, and the great interests which are in the control of the National Government to the Old South, with its bitterness, its unreconcised temper, its its narrowness of vision, its hestility to all Northern interests, its constant longing to revive an impossible past, its absolute incapacity to income the Government of all hostile lines and the absolute training of the Government of all hostile lines and the absolute training of the Government of all hostile lines and the absolute training of just and magnanimous pelicles. [Renewed cheering.]

The North and South under the Republican administration of the Government of all hostile lines and the absolute training of just and magnanimous pelicles. [Renewed cheering.] But all prospect of that result would be defeated and destroyed by giving the old South possession of the National power. Among the first of the baleful effects that would follow would be the crushing out of all liberal progress in the South, and the practical natification of all that has been gamed by the reconstruction of the factor progress in the South, and the practical natification of all th

The trouble was with the cable on the north roadway, and was caused by a "slack, it was said. Cars were run on the south roadway at intervals of ten or twelve minutes. The small pony engines used for switching pushed with a great deal of pushing two cars up the steep grade, and then they would run down the decline with the case of a Coney leand. "Fuller action" would run down the decline with the case of a Coney Island "roller coaster." Some of the trains when heavily loaded on the New-York side required two engues, one at either end. Passengers were rather startled at the rapid motion and the flying sparks from the engines. The trips were made in less than three minutes, and one trip, timed by a horseman with his chronometer, was made in 2:18; "better," he said "than Maud S. could have done with such a grade to overcome."

Superintendent Hoagland said that the cable could have been used longer, but it was thought best to make the repair at once and take no risk.

MAUD S. MAKES A FAST QUARTER. "The dispatch from Lexington, Ky., pub-ished in the papers this morning, stating that Maud S. was to trot against time to-day, are absurd," said Robert Bonner to a TRIBUNE reporter last evening. "It would have been madness to give her a fast mile so soon after her long journey. This morning I received the following dispatch from my brother, who is out there: 'Maud in fine condition. Had a light rain yesterday, which imnne condition. Had a light rain yesterday, which improved the track.—DAVID BONNER.' The mare was exercised to-day, and this evening I received the following dispatch from my son: 'Maud trotted this afterhoon in 24 and repeated in 2019. She went the last quarter of the second mile in 314 very easily. Never liked her better. But says the same.—FREDERIC BONNER.' You see she trotted the last quarter in 314, a 2:05 gait. This is the first time she has been started up since she left Hartford."

LAKE NAVIGATION IMPEDED. DETROIT, Oct. 23 .- Heavy wind and snow storms are reported this morning from Lake Huron and Lake Michigan ports. There is a jam at St. Clair Flats and forty-six yeasels are detained. All passage between Lake Erie and Lake Huron is thus blockaded.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

BONDHOLDERS SUPPORT WEST SHORE. The railroud companies and the brokers contime to hold passenger rates on the basis recently agreed upon, or at least no case of cutting has been diseavered of so flagrant a character as to cause the West Shore road to meet the cut. In the opinion of a prominent railroad man who was talked with: "The question of how soon a further cut will be made depends upon the relative amount of business secured by the West Shore and the brokers. At even rates the public naturally will go to the regular offices, and if the brokers feet a loss of hustness they will be tompted to divide their commissions with the customer. As soon as that is done, flown will go the West Shore's rates and then the other lines must follow. Another point bearing on the situation is whether or not the Pennsylvania will lose by the lewer rates all travel except that which goes by its limited express train. If it once goes into the fight it is bound to make it hot."

Objection to the policy new pursued by the West Shore has been said to have been made by large holders of the company's bonds. The bondholders' committee, of which H. D finikley is secretary, met yesterday, and after carefully considering all the circumstances proceding the recent reduction of rates, approved the action of the receiver as being in the interest and for the protection of the property. The company claims to be only meeting the rates of its competitors and, that being the case, the receivers hold that they are only doing their duty. Since the reduction the carnings of the road are declared officially to show a targe increase.

THE RAILROAD FIGHT. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TEIRUNE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23 .- Nothing is known here of a reported attempt on the part of Baltimore merchants of a reported attempt on the part of Baltimore merchants to form a water freight line to New-York to fight the Pennsylvania *Railroad. Since the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association was snubled by President Roberts they have kept aloof from the struggle between the two railroads, and are awaiting results. The association is evenly divided in opinion between the justification of the two. In an interview to-day an official of the Baltimore and Ohlo stated that his company had some heavy artillery which they were reserving for the Penn sylvania, it the latter should succeed in the courts.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—To-day the Baltimore and Ohlo Railroad Company took another step in the war with the Pennsylvania, by a cut in western through passenger rates. At all the offices here tickets are being sold from this city to the west by way of New York at insures considerably lower than those of the rival line. The rates are, by this cut, $17.50 to Chicago, or 75 cents less time the Pennsylvania's through tickets, and $21.50 to 8t. Louis, or $1.25 less. All passengers on these tickets go to Gotham before striking a trunk line to the West.

TRIAL OF GEORGE HAZLETINE.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE THRUNG. BALTIMORE, Oct. 23,-The Crimical Court was crowded to day to hear the trial of George Hazle-tine, for the murder of Mamie Thorpe, last July, in a disreputable house. The scene was most affecting. The prisoner, a young man faultlessly dressed, sat with castdown eyes in the prisoners' dock. Along side of him was seated his gray-haired mother, a fine-looking old lady, who plainly showed the mortification of her position. His Honor, Judge Phelps, who has the reputation of being the most severe of the Supreme Bench, presided. The audience was conspicuous for the numbers of dissolute women and persons notorious in sporting circles present. States-Attorney Gans represented the State, late women and persons notorious in sporting circles present. States-Attorney Gans represented the State, and the prisoner had for his defence an imposing array of counsel in the persons of ex-Governor Pinckney Whyte. W. H. Whyte, Raffas W. Anolegarth and others. Contrary to expeciations, there was no trouble experienced in setting a jury, and the case opened promptly at 12:15 o'clock.

The first witness was May White, the friend and companion of the unfortunate Mamle Thorpe, and who was seriously wounded by Hazietine at the time of the marder of Miss Thorpe. Miss White is a romarkably fine-looking woman, of commanding presence. When she went on the stand, the defence immediately began a system of attack on her character, with the intention of impugning her testimony, but without success. The annappy girl stood the lawyers' cutting expressions without nurmaring, but created a sensation by finnly declining, even when ordered by the Court, to reveal her real name and identity further than that she was been of respectable parents in the town of Utica, N. Y., and acknowledged that for some years past she was the proprietress of the finest disreputable house in Toronto, Canada, where she became acquainted with both the murderer and his victim, the latter having been for some time a boarder in her house. All testimony proves that Hazletine [was not intoxicated at the time of the shooting. The evidence is against him, but the general opinion is that his father's wealth will save his neck. The case went over until to-morrow.

DISCORD IN A PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

The Rockland County Prohibitionists held a convention at Nyack, called to meet at 1 p.m., at which time eight men were present. An hour later the number time eight men were present. An hour later the number was augmented by nine more. The Rev. George H. Hick, who once thrashed "Father Columbia," was chosen chairman. Pence prevailed until the name of Alonzo Wheeler, of Haverstraw, was presented as candidate for District Attorney, then the Rev. Richard Harcourt, of Haverstraw, rose to protest. He impeached Mr. Wheeler's character, and attacked his official record. Mr. Wheeler smally threw off his coat, and rose to reply. Cries of "Order," "Order," "Quiet," "Sit down," and like shouts raised a fearful din. The ticket nominated was as follows: For Assembly, the Rev. Dr. S. L. Baldwin, of Nyack; County Treasurer, Theodore Fredericks, of Haverstraw; District Attorney, Alonzo Wheeler; Justice of Sossdons, Edward W. Cole; Coroner, F. L. R. Tetamore.

MR. EVARTS'S GREAT SPEECH ADDRESSING A LARGE AUDIENCE IN THE BROOKLYN ACADEMY,

PRICE THREE CENTS.

WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD BE UPHEL! -SCORING CURTIS AND THE INDEPENDENTS. -scoring curtis and the independents.

An audience comprising many of the best people of Brooklyn crowded the Brooklyn Academy of Music last evening, to hear William M. Evarts disscuss in his masterly manner the issues of this campaign, and a magnificent reception was given to the eloquent ex-Secretary. All of the parquet seats were occupied by women and their excerts. A few minutes after 7 o'clock the main doors were opened and the rest of the building was quickly filled by the throng which had gathered at that early hour, and those who came later turned away disappointed. A large number of the members of the Brooklyn Young Republican Club, under whose direction the meeting was held, were present. The 500 seats upon the stage were filled with representative citizens. Among them were Simeon B. Chittenden, Stephen V. White, City Treasurer A. D. Wheelock, General B. F. Tracy, John Winston, Joshua M. Van Cott, S. B. Duryea, Franklin Woodruff, David S. Arnott, Henry K. Sheldon, the Rev. W. L. Phillips, Henry L. Pratt, Charles E. Teale, W. T. Hateli, the Rev. H. Thomas, E. P. Ide and the Rev. William Burt, While the audience was being seated a portrait of Mr. Blaine was suspended from the flies over the stage, amid loud applause and three ringing cheers for Blaine and Logan.

Mr. Evarts's appearance with William H. Williams, the president of the club, was the signal for long continued and repeated applause. Many of the people in the house rose to their feet and waved their handkerchiefs until the auditorium looked as if it had blossomed with white plumes.

MR. WILLIAMS'S REMARKS-A LETTER FROM DI STORES.

When the applause had died away, William H. Williams, president of the club, opened the meeting with the following remarks:

Williams, president of the club, opened the meeting with the following remarks:

The Brooklyn Young Republican Club bids you welcome to hight and heartily congratulates you on the occasion which has brought you here. The circumstances under which we meet recall to vivid remembronce a notable evening four years ago. This club has just been organized and the present honored Chief Magistrate of this city was then the honored president of their club. It had enlisted under the Republican flug for the purpose of aiding in the election of Garfield and Arthur, and almost its first appearance before the people of Brooklyn was on the evening to which I have referred. When he this Hall, in the presence of an assemblage the counterpart of flast gathered here this evening, the distinguished orator, jurist and statesman who is with as to-high discussed the issues of that memorable compaten. The four years that have passed since that infait have not clouded his faith or yours in the Republican party, nor lessened his devotion or yours to the great principles which distinguish that party from all of its opponents. He is with us acaim, in the ripeness and splendor of his matchless power to instruct by his wisdom and to strengthen us by his counsel. In order that the immosing grandent of such an audience as this might be supplemented by a dispity and character in the presiding officer helitting the occasion, it was my pleasure to extend to that eminent citizen, accompilshed scholar and loyal republican, the Rev. Dr. Storre, an invitation to accept the chairmanship of this meeting, to which he gave a prompt and cordial assent. But a sad family bereavement has called him out of the city and will deprive us of the honor and pleasure of his presence. Before leaving town he sent a letter to me which I will now read:

My DEAR StR: It is an occasion of vory great regret to me to at I can hardly hope, after all, to be at the Academy of Music this evening. I am unexpectedly summoned from home by a call of duty and of affection, which is absolutely imperative; and it is very improbable that I shall be able to return to the city in time for the meeting.
I regret to fail of fulfiling my promise to the committee, so cheerfully made. I greatly regret to miss the opportunity of welcoming with you and for you, the accomplished statement and the cisquent orator who is to addriss you. I regret, most of align lose the chance of publicy expressing to my follow-titzen my honor for the Republican party, and my combdent hope and expectation that it is to be grantly successful in the conting elected. But the call to go elsewhere is one which I cannot do otherwise than obey; and I must ask you to present for me my most sincere apologies and regrets.—
Ever faithfully yours.
